

“AQUANET” Project

Expert Training for an Efficient Water Management

Legal Notice:

“AQUANET” is one of the selected Projects for Spain within the Leonardo da Vinci Programme of the European Union in the call-for-proposals 2007.

Contents on the “Project website” can be freely used as long as references to the Project and the Programme in which it is framed are mentioned.

The aim of the website is to disseminate the initiative and its results with the intent of transferring them.

Web site access is free without need to register, except for taking part in the Project pilot training in on-line modality or to collaborate in the “International Observatory”. Both will comply with their own rules.

Access to the Project website and its services implies the acceptance of these terms.

Privacy Policy:

In no case, casual visitor’s personal information shall be collected.

Needed information for taking part in the pilot training or for collaborating in the International Observatory will never be transferred to third parties or used with objectives different from the project’s, without prior express authorisation from its respective owners.
